Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.

— Psalm 90:12

VALUES TO LIVE BY

Today's scriptures contain some catch phrases that are still quite familiar in our world: "All is vanity," and "Eat, drink, and be merry" are both scriptural in origin. In the same way that it is easy to pray last week's Lord's Prayer thoughtlessly, it is easy to let the potent passages of scripture that are built on these common sayings glide right off our slick ears.

Last week's scriptures instructed us to listen attentively to the Lord, so that we might pray carefully. Our listening and our prayer are intimately connected. In the same way, this week we learn that our values and our living are connected as well. It has become quite common to ask, "Do you own your possessions or do they own you?" Like the familiar maxims from today's readings, we might be tempted to quote this saying flippantly, and think that in the quoting of it we have truly considered it, perhaps lived it. Not true, Qoheleth, Paul, and Jesus tell us today. It is not wrong to treasure or cherish things of earth or of our own humanity; it is only wrong when those things we cherish are not of God, are not of the self-giving Christ.

Eucharistic Adoration

Do I want it all now? What about eternity? That is one of the questions we are pondering in today's readings. What does matter most in our lives? Is it "things" or our relationships with others? The Adoration Chapel is the perfect place to talk it all over with Jesus as you sit quietly before the Blessed Sacrament. Let Him redirect your focus away from the material quest and more towards the ways to share His love and compassion with others you meet along the way. The Chapel is open Monday through Friday from 9 AM to 6 PM for all to give Him thanks!

AUGUST 7, FIRST SATURDAY: The Chapel will also be open from 9 AM to 6 PM. Rather than quiet reflection, there is a different format of prayer offered on the first Saturday of every month. Each hour a pro-life rosary is prayed before the Blessed Sacrament, followed by the Divine Mercy Novena and prayers for World Peace. Come and join the voices praying to Jesus during that time. Questions? Please call Hoa Doan at 548-4664.

YOUTH ADORATION, First Saturday from 3-4 PM: This hour is especially for the youth of our parish (toddler through teens). They will enjoy a story of a saint, music and guided meditation. For information, email Jeff at jeffjuls@sbcglobal.net or call 985-0846.
