GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS

Our extended lesson in discipleship continues this weekend with a focus on the centrality of thanksgiving to the Christian life. We hear stories of foreigners who experience the healing, cleansing power of the God of Israel and give the Lord thanks. In today's episode from the book of Kings the prophet Elisha cures a foreigner named Naaman of his leprosy. Naaman returns to thank Elisha and pledges to worship only the God of Israel from that day forward. The Gospel presents the story of the cleansing of ten lepers. It is the Samaritan—also a foreigner—who returns to give Jesus thanks and give God glory and praise. "The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power," sings the psalmist. "Sing joyfully to the Lord . . . Sing praise" (Psalm 98:2, 4).

Eucharistic Adoration

Fall brings a change of season with cooler weather and brilliant colors. Jesus is with us all of the seasons of our life. Come and reflect with Him in the silence of our Adoration Chapel. Jesus is truly present for us in the solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. The Chapel is open Monday through Friday from 9 AM to 6 PM. "Whatever you face in your day, don't lose heart. Know that God goes before you, creating a clean heart and a fresh perspective. He will give you the strength to endure." Let yourself be strengthened as you share time with Jesus in our Adoration Chapel!

On Friday, the hour of 1-2 PM is still in need of a second person to share this time. If you can make a commitment twice a month, please call Cathy Kovarik at 353-0688.

has saved
